

Women in Energy, Asia

May 2019

History

- Women in Energy, Asia (“WIEA”) was started in 2014 with the objective to give female professionals of the energy sector a platform to grow their industry network and foster their careers through networking, industry talks, training, mentoring, role-modeling and professional development.
- 5 sponsored breakfast talks organised in 2014: the increasing success and the impressive response to a talk by Melody Meyer, President, Chevron Exploration & Production, Asia Pacific convinced us to move this initiative to the next level and officially register WIEA as a society
- Women in Energy, Asia was officially launched in early February 2015
